

KANSAS BROADBAND READY COMMUNITIES

Kansas Office of Broadband Development (KOBD) has developed the Kansas Broadband Ready Communities (KBRC) to address broadband access challenges in unserved and underserved areas. The KBRC program aims to bridge the digital divide and foster a better connected Kansas.

CHECKLIST

Empowering communities. Expanding broadband access.

Single point of contact for all matters to related broadband.

30 day review process.

Electronic form process or plan to move to one.

Reasonable review fee.

Prohibits discrimination with respect to granting access to public rights-of-way, or any other physical assets owned or controlled by the community.

KOBD CONTACT
PARTNERSHIPS COORDINATOR
SHELLEY PAASCH
SHELLEY.A.PAASCH@KS.GOV
785.276.9995

LEARN MORE

HTTPS://BIT.LY/BROADBANDREADY

A public list of certified communities will be showcased on the KOBD website.