

Reviews

“As coordinator for Acoustic Junction, a regional Acoustic performance venue, I recommend The Church Ladies. They have graced our stage several times. They are versatile and play many different genres. . . and a variety of instruments. Their true instruments are their great vocal harmonies. . .”

Robert Cervera, Event Coordinator/ Acoustic Junction

“The entertainment trio THE CHURCH LADIES have been performing twice a year in Wamego over the last few years at both our Tulip Festival and our OZtober FEST. They are amazingly entertaining and a crowd favorite.”

Kara Holle, Wamego Area Chamber of Commerce

“I love listening to The Church Ladies . . .At the Prairiewood Retreat & Preserve, they had the entire crowd hootin’ and hollerin’ . . .Really great folks in this group. Always a fun time.”

Ken Stafford, Tallgrass Prairie Preservationist

“I would like to recommend . . . The Church Ladies. I have had the privilege of being entertained by this group in three different settings. They. . .adapt to their different audiences, their musical quality is great, their jokes are entertaining, and well received by their audiences.”

Claudene Flanary, Kansas Education Specialist

“We heard these three ladies perform at our church in Manhattan and they had heavenly voices. We came to find out they were so much more! . . . they agreed to present some cowboy music for us at the Lazy T Ranch for the 2020 virtual celebration of The National Day of the Great American Cowboy. . .”

Ron Wilson, Kansas Rancher and Cowboy “Poet Lariat”

“We have hosted The Church Ladies trio several times. Their music brings joy to the First United Methodist Church of Junction City. . . they showcase a range of music from classical hymns, gospel and contemporary to country and pop. The three voices in harmony, along with the musical instruments, complete the musical package for all ages.”

Pastor Dirk Weiss