Proposes service to an area in which construction is already underway

Please provide your comments in the text box below:

Cox Communications is currently invested, using private capital, in building out a significant area of Barton County which will provide residents and businesses access to multi-gigabit broadband speeds. Cox's build area that is currently in progress overlaps with the proposed application from Brightspeed and has a planned completion date within the next 18 Months, with broadband access homes in August of 2023.

Upload supporting documentation - multiple files should be submitted as a .ZIP file.
