

An Evening of Artistic Collaboration Proposal

Prepared by: Cydnee A. Reese, Wanderer Speaks United December 13, 2021

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Objective

Provide a space for artistic collaboration and community involvement in the arts.

Goals

Unite the community via art and allow creatives to monetize their craft.

Solution

This event will be an evening filled with performance, visual art, written word and community fellowship. Artists and poets will be paired together to create and showcase works in response to each other's work. Poets will perform live spoken word (or a reading) while the artists who created pieces will have their works on display and available for purchase.

Project Outline

- Art work will be completed by 31 March 2022
  - Art work will be collected and stored by Wanderer Speaks United prior to the event (unless otherwise arranged) • The event will take place in April (National Poetry Month). Date to be determined.
