Federal Preservation Law

The objective of Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act is to provide a process of review for projects undertaken by agencies of the federal government. This includes projects receiving funding from those agencies. SHPO reviewers seek to identify properties listed in or determined eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places and then determine the effect each project will have on any historic properties identified.

Kansas State Preservation Law

The objective of the Kansas State Preservation Law is to provide a process of review for projects undertaken by state and local governments. This review to determine any effects projects may have on historic properties listed in the National Register of Historic Places or the Register of Historic Kansas Places is outlined in Kansas statute K.S.A. 75-2724 and in associated regulations.
